Monthly Garden Tips

This is a good time of year to walk around and observe your 'winter garden'. Are there deer tracks showing you where the deer or animals are entering your garden? Are there 'snow melt' warm spots where you could plant bulbs next spring? Is there an area that is calling out for a taller object of some sort, maybe a tree or an arbor?

Monday - March 19th - 6:30 p.m.
Meeting at the Nature Center

Invasive Species

Matthew Bertrand, Invasive Species Specialist will speak on the ever growing threat,
